

2018-19 Expert in Residence Grant Recipients

Total Awarded: $12,100

Program	School	Recipient	Grant Amount
My Heart in a Suitcase This live production, which is the true story of Anne Fox, is viewed as a part of the 7th grade reading unit based on The Diary of Anne Frank. Students will learn about a Jewish family living in Nazi-controlled Berlin in 1938. Anne’s parents, as well as thousands of other Jewish parents, were given the choice of placing their children on a train, or Kindertransport, to Great Britain where children stayed with English families until it was safe to return to Germany.	Warwick MS	Christie Cosmore	$2,500
Avi Nine (9) presentations by Newberry Award winning author Avi over three days which will include programs for grades 4-6 at all elementary schools; a presentation to 7th grade students who will read Avi’s Nothing But the Truth; a presentation to a high school creative writing class; an evening community program; a question and answer session with the grant writer’s language arts class; and a question and answer session with selected students from grades 4-6 from all elementary schools.	Lititz Elem.	Patti Lapp	$9,000
A Visit from Ulysses S. Grant Gunnery Sgt. Kenneth J. Serfass has been an active civil war enactor and impressionist since his boyhood in PA and his 40 years of study of his self-avowed childhood hero, Ulysses S. Grant. His program, to all 8th grade students over three days, includes a brief biography of Grant’s life with a specific focus on his role in winning the American Civil War. Following his presentation, students will be able to ask questions about Grant.	Warwick MS	Matthew Kemble	$ 600
Grand Total			$12,100